

Diocese of Clifton: Bath Deanery:
The Christian Faith in the 21st Century

Proclaiming the Gospel in an uncertain world

A talk and discussion led by

Father Robert King,
University of Bristol.

7.30 p.m. on Wednesday November 17th
in St. John's Parish Hall*, South Parade, Bath.

Preaching is done to delight and instruct. Historically, preachers have sought new and often controversial ways to convey their message and such innovations have been met with mixed receptions. Today, the same struggle occurs over the place of media such as film and web design to convey the gospel message. In addition to his ministerial role, Fr Robert King is an accomplished artist, film historian, and cultural commentator. As such, he is ideally placed to offer insights and explore the history and implications of the role of popular media and its effectiveness in spreading the Church's message.

Coffee & biscuits.

* Enter top car park, left down four steps and into door on right.

The Christian Faith in the 21st Century. A series of informal discussions encouraging Catholics to explore the relation between their faith and important contemporary ideas.